

Liverpool FC try hands at table tennis

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: January 24, 2012

Liverpool Football Club stars Jose Enrique and Sebastian Coates have tried their hand at table tennis with pupils at Shorefields Community College as part of the Liverpool FC Premier League 4 Sport scheme.

PL4S is promoted by the ETTA to keep children active after leaving school as the initiative hopes to prevent the drop-off in young people's participation in sport after leaving education.

The full report can be read on the Liverpool FC website here

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/liverpool-fc-try-hands-at-table-tennis/>