

Juniors reach women's round 2

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: March 03, 2012

The women's singles first round saw a host of junior talent making it through to the second round against their more experienced peers.

Tin-Tin Ho, Jessica Dawson and Isobel Ashley all defeated players much older than themselves and will now face the seeded players who enter the tournament later today.

Tin-Tin Ho picked up a great win against Sanja Clements 4-1 (7-11, 11-8, 11-9, 11-5, 11-7) while Dawson won an entertaining game between herself and Sue Collier 4-2 (11-8, 11-13, 8-11, 11-5, 11-1).

Ashley beat surprise group winner Janine Bromley 4-2 (11-9, 11-9, 10-12, 5-11, 11-5) while there were also wins for Natalie Slater, Tressa Armitage, Karen Shepherd and Chloe Whyte.

Milwain also beat Evangeline Collier 4-0 (11-4, 11-2, 11-5, 11-6) impressively and she will now face Karina Le Fevre in the next round.

The full second round draw is:

Parker vs Ashley, Milwain vs Le Fevre, Spink vs Slater, Dawson vs Bates, Hicks vs Armitage, Ho vs King, Vickers vs Whyte and Shepherd vs Sibley.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/juniors-reach-womens-round-2/>