The draw for the Tees Sport Blackpool Grand Prix has been decided with a number of big names ready to compete at the 'Las Vegas' of England.

Hoping to pull out a few star-studded performances in the men's singles are a mix of players from all over the UK, and the world! Number 7 seed Aki Tsuji (JPN) will join the top three seeds; Gavin Rungay (SCO), Daniel Reed (ENG) and Ryan Jenkins (WAL) in a truly multi-national event. Doncaster Grand Prix winner and the recent Jersey Open Champion, Chris Doran, will hope to continue his form as the fourth seed along with David McBeath (fifth seed), Niall Cameron (SCO, sixth) and Garry Dodd (GGY, eighth).

Yuko Tsuji (JPN) will also hope for more success after her victory in Doncaster as she takes the top seeding, ahead of England number three Hannah Hicks. The remaining seeds will endure an England versus Wales battle with Emma Vickers, Karina Le Fevre and Natalie Slater looking to keep out the Welsh contingent of Charlotte Carey, Megan Phillips and Angharad Phillips.
