

British League Press & Publicity Team Expansion

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: October 23, 2012

The British League are recruiting for new members of our press & publicity team.

We are looking for people with some or all of the following skills/experience:

- Journalism
- Twitter/Facebook
- Photo editing
- Video editing
- General web/IT
- 365 results entry
- Knowledge of the players, teams and clubs

This is a voluntary role and will be based at home and competition locations; however as a member of the organising team you will be provided with refreshments throughout the weekend, plus you can claim your expenses at current ETTA rates, to cover your travelling or accommodation costs.

We are looking to ideally appoint someone from within the table tennis community, preferably someone with existing knowledge of the competition format and competitors. If you feel you have what it takes to fill this very important and exciting new role, then please contact Chris Dangerfield for an informal discussion.

Note: If you play in one of the British League competitions you would not be suitable for this role.

To apply for the post contact Chris Dangerfield, British League Chairman, on 0845 519 4998 or chris@tabletennis365.com

Closing Date: 9th November
