Will Bayley will be featuring Saturday morning on Channel 4 in the broadcaster's latest Paralympic show 'Teenage Superhumans'.

The programme, aired at 7am Saturday morning, features presenter Rachel Latham catching up with three of Britain's 2012 Paralympic stars – including our own double Olympic medalist, Will Bayley.

Alongside double gold medal winning wheelchair sprinter Hannah Cockcroft and 100m gold medal amputee sprinter Jonnie Peacock, Will discusses the sacrifices they have made to achieve their success at the event and how it felt to be thrown into the limelight because of the Paralympic Games.

The programme lasts 55 minutes.

Saturday 15th December 2012 – Channel 4 – 7am – Teenage Superhumans
