

Junior Masters schedule released

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: January 11, 2013

Sam Walker searching for yet another junior title

The schedule has now been produced for next weekend's 2013 Junior Masters where the creme de la creme of English under-18 table tennis meet at Burton Uxbridge TTC to battle it out for the top honours.

Heading the billing will be reigning Junior Boys Champion Sam Walker, looking for a hat-trick of titles after securing the title in both 2011 and 2012. He will open his campaign on Saturday 19th against Adam Harrison.

In the Junior Girls competition last year's runner-up Tin-Tin Ho will start against Nicole Finn. However, with several of the top rated junior girls missing, her final fixture against Maria Tsaptsinos could decide the destination of the title on Sunday at 3pm.

To see the full fixture list you can click here while a programme will be available on the weekend at the venue.

We'll be keeping you up to date with coverage from Burton all weekend on the ETTA Twitter feed, a results table here on the website and photos on our Facebook page.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/junior-masters-schedule-released/>