Posted On: February 05, 2013

Young British sports stars are giving everything to be the best they can be – what will you give?

SportsAid has places remaining in their team for the 2013 Virgin London Marathon. They need your help to fill them.

SportsAid helps to fund athletes involved in the London 2012 Olympic Games and Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

For more information and to apply now please see below:

Entry Fee: £100 (reimbursed if you raise £2,000+)

Special Rate Fundraising Pledge: Usually £1,750 – However as of 21/01/13 we have dropped the pledge to £1,000 to fill our last remaining places

If you feel that £1,000 is too much to raise in the 5 months left of fundraising time then please suggest a pledge you feel is feasible and we will try to agree a target with you.
