TABLE TENNIS MAIL ORDER EQUIPMENT SUPPLIERS

The following is a list of known, specialist mail order table tennis suppliers. This supplier list simply catalogues suppliers of equipment that have met ITTF specifications. Table Tennis England does not endorse the quality of any equipment produced by suppliers on this list.

Often it is difficult to obtain specialist table tennis equipment from the usual high street sources such as sports shops, however, from the list below, it is likely that all table tennis needs can be met. Table Tennis England does not sell equipment. However, mail order companies often have information readily available, give advice FREE and have full colour catalogues. Please contact them direct.
