

Time running out for Tees Sport Blackpool GP

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: March 18, 2013

The closing date for the Tees Sport Blackpool Grand Prix is Friday this week so it's time to get yourself into gear and enter one of the most popular Grand Prix of the table tennis season.

Located at Blackpool Sports Centre, just a hop, skip and a jump away from the seaside and Blackpool pleasure beach, next month's entry (13-14th April) is soon closing for those who haven't yet entered the event.

Last year, Grand Prix King Ryan Jenkins beat Daniel Reed in the Men's Singles final with Gavin Rumgay and Chris Doran the losing semi-finalists. In the Women's singles it was Yuko Tsuji who was victorious over Charlotte Carey while Karina Le Fevre and Megan Phillips both made the last four.

Re-live last year's competition right here: Jenkins triumphs at Tees Sport Blackpool GP

To enter download the form here and send it off straight away!

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/time-running-out-for-tees-sport-blackpool-gp/>