1st4sport Level 3 Certificate in Coaching Table Tennis (L3CCTTQ)

The L3CCTTQ is aimed at coaches who have already achieved the 1st4sport Level 2 Table Tennis qualification, and are working at ETTA Performance Centre level or higher with players on the talent development pathway.

This is a demanding qualification which requires significant off-course time to complete the home study and coaching practice. The programme consists of several phases, spread over a period of 8 – 12 months, typically including:

1. An initial 4 day residential course based at Lilleshall National Sports Centre in the Midlands. The course covers a variety of technical coaching disciplines including physiology, psychology, periodisation, biomechanics and performance analysis. Tutors are experts in their respective field with many having a table tennis background.
2. A home study phase during which the learner will be required to complete various written tasks, culminating in an internal practical assessment.
3. A second home study phase during which the learner will be required to profile at least two players, and then produce an appropriate annual programme. Two 8-week blocks of this programme must then be planned in detail, delivered and evaluated.
4. A second internal practical assessment.
5. A third home study phase where the learner will be expected to complete all written tasks and finally address any actions arising from their home study and/or internal assessments.
6. An independent practical assessment at Lilleshall National Sports Centre.
