This weekend marks the Easter Holidays, and with it, the 7th NatWest Jersey Grand Prix.

Located in one of the most idyllic locations on the Grand Prix circuit, the three-day event includes both the usual Open and Banded competitions as well as the new team tournament on Friday. Perhaps, even, when the weekend is over a few of the lucky winners can bring the weather back with them too!

Last year it was Nottingham Trent Uni's pair of Chris Doran and Alice Loveridge who returned victorious from the isle in 2012. Doran beat the top seed Darius Knight in an absorbing final 3-2 (11-9, 11-8, 7-11, 10-12, 11-8), while Loveridge claimed a hat-trick of titles with a 3-0 (11-3, 16-14, 12-10) win over Emma Vickers.

All four players are once again in action this weekend in the hope of walking away with the big cash prize.
