

Six year old wins Nottingham District Table Tennis Tournament

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: April 02, 2013

Connor Green is only six years old and has been playing table tennis for just over a year, yet he has become the youngest person to win the annual Nottingham District Table Tennis Tournament. Connor's mother, Joanne Green, said she was proud of her champion.

Connor is a member of West Bridgford Table Tennis Club in Nottingham where he receives coaching from Gordon Fearn, ETTA East Midlands Coach of the Year 2013. His Mum and Dad are volunteers at the club and also play in the Nottingham and District Table Tennis League.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/featured-news/six-year-old-wins-nottingham-district-table-tennis-tournament/>