

Reigning Champ Rumgay enters K2 Open

Author: Russell Moore

Posted On: May 16, 2013

The defending Tees Sport K2 Sussex Open champion Gavin Rumgay has thrown his hat into the ring to compete with the UK's best players at this year's tournament on 20th & 21st July 2013.

Scotland's no.1 Gavin is in fine form having beaten Feng Chen (WR 100) for a second time in his career at the Commonwealth Championships in New Delhi whilst securing a team bronze for Scotland and also losing narrowly 4-2 to Ning Gao (WR 16) at the Liebherr World Championships in Paris.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/reigning-champ-rumgay-enters-k2-open/>