

Knight joins growing Tees Sport K2 Sussex entry list

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: June 18, 2013

Darius Knight is the latest international player to enter the rapidly expanding Tees Sport K2 Sussex Open that takes place on the 20th-21st July.

Knight will join an impressive cast of players at the K2 Leisure Centre in Crawley, Sussex, one which includes top domestic names such as Paul Drinkhall, Joanna Parker, Liam Pitchford, Chris Doran, Gavin Runggay, Kazeem Adeleke, Lewis Gray and Liam McTiernan among others.

Also joining the fold will be two international stars from France; Abdel-Kader Salifou and Quentin Robinot!

Salifou is world ranked 131 and no.6 in France and last week won the World Pro tour tournament in Croatia, his second World pro tour title this year after also winning in Egypt in March.

Quentin Robinot is World ranked 145 and no.7 in France and is the former European Junior champion. Meanwhile, Zwickl (No.2 Hungary WR 118) is the team mate of Liam Pitchford in the Bundesliga and is not unfamiliar with competing in England – He competed in the men's singles at the London Olympics!

There is still time to submit your entry and there are events for all standards as well as the opportunity to see our best British talent compete for the title.

For more information please contact the organiser Steve Pound at stevepound9177@yahoo.co.uk or on 01403

269613 or 07795 987815

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/knight-joins-growing-teens-sport-k2-sussex-entry-list/>