Produced by Barry Hearn's Matchroom Sport, the company behind the PDC Darts and World Snooker, and televised live throughout by Sky Sports, the WCPP 2014 continues ping pong's rise into the big league and onto the international television stage.

Tickets are on sale now priced £10 for afternoon sessions and £15 for evenings from www.SeeTickets.com and via www.WorldChampionshipOfPingPong.net

However, ETTA Members can choose from two special offers when purchasing their tickets by adding these codes and following the link below.

As in 2013, the World Championship of Ping Pong will take place over four sessions, with a double elimination group stage featuring eight groups played out on eight tables on the Saturday afternoon before the last 32 enter a knockout stage played across two tables in the evening.

On Sunday morning the last 16 will be whittled down to eight quarter-finalists, who will proceed to the evening session to battle it out for the 2014 World Championship of Ping Pong crown.

Session times are:

12.00 and 18.00 on Saturday 4th January.

12.30 and 18.00 on Sunday 5th January.
