Liam Pitchford was the star of the show at the ITTF World Tour Polish Open in Spala but his campaign ended in heartbreak after he was denied an appearance in his first-ever Under-21s final at the penultimate stage.

The 20-year-old from Chesterfield had already produced one of the performances of the tournament by downing top seed Patrick Franziska (GER, wr 38) 4-1 in the quarter-final on Saturday morning to set up a meeting with Jin Takuya (JPN, 175).

However, the reigning National Champion found his luck deserting him as he fell to defeat with three successive ends going against him in deuce with his Japanese opponent establishing a tense 3-0 lead. Although Pitchford fought back in the fourth game 11-9, his efforts were halted with an 11-8 fifth game which saw Takuya progress to the final in his place.

Up until that point the tournament had gone well for the English No. 1 who had also made the last 32 of the Men's Singles after a fine 4-2 victory over Iran's Noshad Alamiyan (55).

Although he experienced a nervy first group game against Ondrej Bajger (CZE, 484) in which he only scraped a 4-3 victory, he quickly settled against Sanil Shetty (IND, 310) to win his group with a 4-0 triumph. He repeated the 4-0 scoreline in the pre-rounds against Admir Duranspahic (BIH, 224) before his first big win against Alamiyan.

Ultimately he would be halted by Japan's Kenta Matsudaira (wr 18) in a five-game encounter but the Englishman can still be proud of his achievements in Poland.

There was less success for Pitchford's English compatriots, however, as only Andrew Baggaley managed to make it through his Men's Singles group. The 30-year-old edged past Simon Pfeffer (AUT, 690) 4-3 in his first match but fell by the same scoreline to German Benedikt Duda (248) in the pre-rounds.

Meanwhile both Daniel Reed (beaten by Kohei Sambe, JPN) and Sam Walker (beaten by Yang Zi, SIN) failed to emerge from their groups although Walker did later partner Pitchford to a doubles victory over French youngsters Enzo Angles and Tristan Flore before losing to Chinese duo Fan Zhengdong and Zhou Yu.
