

Butterfly Cardiff GP entry extended

Author: Russell Moore

Posted On: December 02, 2013

2012/13 winner Angharad Phillips won at 'home' in Cardiff (Alan Man Photography)

The entry for the Butterfly Cardiff Grand Prix (December 21-22, 2013) has been extended to Thursday December 5th for those who are still hopeful of taking part in the popular event in the Welsh capital.

Last season it was the other home nations who dominated the tournament with Ireland's Paul McCreery and Wales' Angharad Phillips taking home the main Men's and Women's singles prizes while Welsh coach, Paul Beck, won the Veteran's Singles to boot.

To get involved this year You can enter here

Written by Russell Moore (December 1, 2013)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/butterfly-cardiff-gp-entry-extended/>