Nine English players head to Hungary this week for an important year-opening tournament at the GAC Group ITTF World Tour Hungary Open (Jan 29–Feb 1) in Szombathely.

With the Commonwealth Games 2014 on the horizon, international performances will be at the front of both the players' and selectors' minds as places for Glasgow come at a premium.

Chances to shine on the world circuit are not always easy to come by so the Challenger Event in Hungary provides a number of the players a great chance to not only improve their world ranking, but create some serious blows in the race for a spot in the summer squad.

Paul Drinkhall, in his return to international action, leads the English effort in Szombathely in the absence of Liam Pitchford who was busy on Friday in Germany winning twice (vs Wei Dong Shi and Carlos Machado) as his side TTF Liebherr Ochsenhausen made the ETTU Cup Semi-Finals, while wife Joanna Drinkhall also makes her calendar year bow.

Joining the couple in Hungary will be David McBeath, Andrew Baggaley, Sam Walker, Daniel Reed, Darius Knight, Kelly Sibley and Tin-Tin Ho with a full list of their opening fixtures below.

There's also a healthy following from north of the border as Scotland have sent their squad ahead of the Commonwealths with Knight ready to face Calum Main in the Men's Singles groups.

That fixture is one of four featuring English players to air on the first run of live matches on itTV. Catch the live action from the following matches by heading to the ITTF website at the times below:
