

British League – three voluntary roles

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: March 19, 2014

The British League has a number of opportunities for volunteers:

- Veterans' League organiser
- Women's League organiser
- Press & Publicity team members with any of the following skills or experience: Journalism, TV/Broadcast, camera operation, commentary/presentation, social networking, general IT (image manipulation, website content management).

The British League is a competition run by volunteers, on behalf of the English Table Tennis Association. All roles are voluntary but expenses are covered.

If you have any interest, please contact Chris Dangerfield, British League chairman, via chris@tabletennis365.com

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/three-roles-at-the-british-league/>