Liam Pitchford's Ochsenhausen team are one match away from ruling Europe after confirming their place in the ETTU Cup final.

Leading 3-0 from the first leg, the German side beat Austrian team Walter Wels 3-1 to complete a 6-1 aggregate victory.

Pitchford did not feature in the second leg after starring in the first meeting in Austria.

Waiting in the final are Saarbrücken, who overturned a 3-1 first-leg deficit against Stella Sport La Romagne to make it an all-German final.
