

Vote for Kim Daybell in Champion award

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: May 02, 2014

Kim Daybell

GB Para Table Tennis Team member Kim Daybell is one of 24 athletes in the running for the title of BUCS Supergrad Player of the Tournament Champion 2014.

The 21 year old Sheffield player, who represented GB at the London 2012 Paralympic Games and is studying medicine at Leeds University, won the Player of the Final title for men's table tennis at the BUCS Big Wednesday event after remaining unbeaten throughout the tournament and helping Leeds University to reach the final.

The winner of the BUCS Supergrad Player of the Tournament award, which is worth more than £2,000, will be decided by a public vote. To register a vote for Kim Daybell click on his Player of the Final profile on the Supergrad website at <http://supergrad.org.uk/blog/announcement-supergrad-player-tournament-finalists/>.

Voting opens on May 1st and closes on June 30th and you can also support Kim on Facebook and Twitter.

Paul Stimpson (2nd May, 2014)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/national-news/vote-for-kim-daybell-in-champion-award/>