Enio Mendes

Two Portuguese players who both play professionally in Spain will make the trip to England to play the Heritage Oil Open.

Enio Mendes, who has World Team Championship experience with Portugal and currently rated No 5 in Spain, is joined by his Portuguese team-mate Diogo Pinho, who is rated No 9 in the Spanish league.

The Heritage Oil Open is being played on Saturday 5th July at K2 in Crawley up to the quarter-finals. Semi-finals and finals are being played in the BT Sport studio on Monday 7th July 2014 and will be televised. Spectating is free. If you are interested to spectate please contact Steve Pound at stevepound9177@yahoo.co.uk or tel 07710 400451.
