Last year's consolation finalist Tom Jarvis & Luke Savill will hope for more in 2014

A squad of seven youth players have been selected to represent England at the upcoming 2014 Polish Junior and Cadet Open (Wladyslawowo, May 28 – June 1, 2014) including the trio of Tin-Tin Ho, Tom Jarvis and Luke Savill who all experienced success in Poland in 2013.

Tin-Tin, so often the leader of the English hopes, managed to reach the Cadet Girls Doubles Final with Russian partner Maria Malanina while both Jarvis and Savill, who were knocked out of the singles competition early, met each other in the consolation final with the former emerging triumphant.

One year on, the cadet duo will be hoping to succeed on the main stage this time with Jarvis' win at the Spanish Youth Open giving extra confidence ahead of a challenge against some of the world's best.

Joining the trio in Wladyslawowo will be the Tin-Tin's junior girls' partner Maria Tsaptsinos and the junior boys' team of Helshan Weerasinghe, Daniel Lawrence and Marcus Giles.
