Peter Radford leads ECC A to second place finish

It turned out to be a very good week for England no. two Over 70 Table Tennis player Peter Radford. He played a major part in helping ECC A secure second place in the first division of the Chelmsford & District Table Tennis League by winning his three singles as ECC beat Maldon B 8-2 – another of the three sides vying for the second position. In a delayed match Radford scored a superb trio of wins – downing the challenge of Keiran Lally (11-3, 11-6, 5-11, 8-11, 11-9), Ben Warner (11-4, 11-9, 11-8) and John Cleasby (11-7, 11-7, 11-3). Lucy Wang also played her part and she gave the ECC side a marvellous and perhaps unexpected start by getting the better of Ben Warner 11-6, 11-9, 11-5 in the opening singles. Maldon B had to wait until the ninth game to get on the scoresheet when Ben Warner dismissed Steve Kerns quite comprehensively 11-5, 11-3, 11-7.

Belated congratulations are extended to first division Champions Bocking who finished six points ahead of ECC. They managed to win the title having used a squad of only three players – something of a rarity these days. Paul Davison and Kevin Gowlett led the way with 38 wins out of 50 each whilst Jon Hill scored 23 wins out of 53.

ECC were the winners of the Mixed KO Cup for the sixth time in seven years. They beat Chelmsford 5-1 (Waseem Quereshe, Mike Johnstone and Julie Johnson) at the Semi-Final stage with Lucy Wang and Steve Kerns both winning their matches. Waseem Quereshe was on target for Chelmsford defeating Peter Lau 12-10 in the decider. Elmtree Graphics B were ECC's opponents in the Final and it was the ECC side of Steve Kerns, Peter Radford and Lucy Wang who ran out the winners – defeating Steve Cheesman, Rod MacLennan and Linda Attridge 5-0.

At the time of the County AGM Dave was on holiday in New Zealand at the World Veterans Championships but a letter was passed to a fellow Competitor to be opened by him at the same time as the County meeting.
