Aspiring young players have the chance to be coached by Desmond Douglas at a summer training camp.

The 11-time national champion and former world No 7 will be coaching at BATTs TTC in Harlow on August 19th and 20th, alongside Adam Nutland and Amann Ubhi.

The camp also runs on August 12th and 13th, when England No 12 Tom Maynard will join Nutland and Ubhi.

The cost for the camp, which runs from 1–6pm each day, is £30 (£25 if booked before July 15th). Places are allocated on a first come, first served basis, with priority to juniors, although some adult places may be available.
