Social table tennis group Pongathon, who have led a ping pong storm in the capital since 2011, are teaming up with Popchips to celebrate National Table Tennis Day on July 15th at Richmix, Shoreditch to host a number of events and exhibitions with tasty prizes to boot.

On the night there will be wall-to-wall ping pong tables, DJ's, tournaments, competitions and challenges including the now infamous Pongbot Challenge, Pongathon's own ping pong robot that takes on all-comers. Also happening is 'Dodge-Pong' – Pongathon's own take on 'Dodge Ball'; eight players, two tables, two balls with the fastest feet and hands winning a case of Popchips!

Everyone has played round-the-world before on one table but on three? That's right, a massive ping pong shuffle will take place with as many people as Pongathon can squeeze around the tables. The last two standing battle it out for another case of Popchips!

England international players will also be joining the resident Pongathon pro's for a hugely entertaining 'Challenge the Pro' special where the 'stars' will be handicapped with mobile phones, frying pans and anything else the 'Pongathon Massive' want to challenge them with up to nine points! And yes you've guessed it, lots of Popchips for the winners! With more exhibitions play, singles and doubles tournaments, sofa-ping and plenty of bar action also taking place there's something for everyone if you're looking for a game in London.
