Thanks once again to all who have provided information this week from all around the country, including a delightful email from a 13-year-old young lady who recognised her Grandpa.

As well as providing much discussion at many events I understand a wealth of knowledge is being added to the archive material. I am pleased to receive any additional information or amendments at any time, which will be added to the series of photographs held under 'Our Sport'. Contact DianeK1414@hotmail.co.uk

Elsie Carrington – An ETTA Vice-President in 1979 and Hampshire County TTA Life Member. Despite playing in nine World Championships, 11 English Opens, one European Championships and becoming a National Champion, Elsie never represented her country. A late starter to the game at 27 years old, Elsie went on to help husband, Jack, with much of his coaching work at home and abroad as well as being a class player, coach and organiser in her own right. Jack taught Elsie to play each stroke perfectly so she could act as a demonstrator at coaching sessions. Possible the first buy one, get one free, as Elsie used to accompany Jack at her own expense so the ETTA got two for the price of one. 1950 was Elsie's most successful year at World Championships, where she reached the quarter-finals in the Women's Doubles. An admitted better doubles than singles player, Elsie got to the Women's Doubles quarter-finals at the English Open in 1952 (Doreen Spooner), 1953 and 1955 (Barbara Milbank), and 1957 (C Rougagnou of France). At Mixed Doubles, a further quarter-final place was gained with J Stanek of Czechoslovakia.

At the National Championships, Elsie won two gold medals in the Women's Doubles, with Jean McCree in September 1960 and Jackie Canham/Billington in 1968, and was semi-finalist in January 1960 with Jean McCree and 1964 and 1967 with Jackie Canham/Billington. Elsie also reached the Mixed Doubles semi-finals in September 1960 with Bryan Merrett and 1963 with Stan Jacobson. A world title came Elsie's way in 1990 when she became the World Over-70s Women's Singles Veteran's champion at Baltimore, USA.

Bill Vint, OBE – A plethora of positions and honours and awards from one of the most well respected and hardworking officers of table tennis nationally and internationally. Honours and awards include ETTA President 1970-1978, ETTA Honorary Life Vice-President, ETTA Honorary Life Member 1956, ETTA Vice-President 1985, OBE 1957. ITTF Hall of Fame 1997. ETTA Chairman, Treasurer and General Secretary. ETTA Executive Committee League Representative (Hastings). Hastings & District TTA Chairman. ITTF: General Secretary (1967 +), Treasurer (1947-1969), Standing Orders Committee Chairman (1951+), Membership Committee Chairman (1967+). Bill also was Non-Playing Captain for England in 1937/38 against France.

Jack Carrington – The architect of coaching schemes at home and abroad. Jack was the mastermind behind the highly successful Proficiency Award Scheme. Jack's star pupil was World Champion Johnny Leach, who he partnered very successfully on many occasions. As well as setting up the coaching scheme in England Jack, with wife Elsie, travelled abroad to help other countries – Sweden, Australia, New Zealand and Canada. Originally working in an Honorary position as Director of Coaching, Jack became the first professional Director of Coaching. He was also on the ETTA Senior and Junior Selection Committees and served as ITTF Publicity and Propaganda Commission Chairman. Some other positions held: European Championships Honorary Organiser 1966, President of English Schools Table Tennis Association, Editor for four years of 'Table Tennis', also writing for 'Table Tennis Review'. London Business Houses ASA Table Tennis Section – Unilever TTC Secretary 1935–1938+. Author of several coaching books.

On the playing front, Jack was an England International and played in seven World Championships, reaching the quarter-finals in the Men's Singles in 1947. With Johnny Leach in 1947, Jack was runner-up in the Men's Doubles and reached the semi-finals in 1951, again with Johnny. Jack played in English Opens both pre and post-war and won a gold medal with Johnny Leach in the Men's Doubles in November 1950, was runner-up in 1949 and March 1950 and semi-finalist in November 1947 and 1952. Mixed Doubles quarter-finals were reached in March 1947 with Irene Lentl and November 1947 with Molly Jones.

Godfrey Decker – One of the early players and administrators of table tennis in England. Godfrey played in the first England international match in 1923 versus Wales, winning all his eight singles matches. He played in the first World Championships in 1926 and several English Opens between 1923 and 1932, reaching the quarter-finals in the Men's Singles in 1923. However, Godfrey was perhaps best known for his wizardry with equipment and lighting, pioneering many innovations and working at five World Championships and 23 England Championships (English Opens).

Godfrey was the Table Tennis Association Honorary General Secretary 1924/25 and ETTA Honorary General Secretary 1932/33. He was also the St Bride (All England) TT Club Assistant Secretary from 1922–1924 and its President. Another role was ETTA Representative for Directly Affiliated Clubs from 1927–1929. In 1956 Godfrey Decker was made an Honorary Life Member of the ETTA, an honour richly deserved.

Ken Craigie – An England International who won a team bronze medal in the World Championships in 1954, also reaching the quarter-finals that year in the Men's Doubles with Alan Rhodes. Other appearances at the Worlds were in 1948 and 1951. Ken was a regular at English Opens from 1947–1961 and was a Men's Singles semi-finalist in April 1953 as well as Mixed Doubles semi-finalist with Jill Rook at those Championships. Despite being in his 30s when the National Championships were first held Ken, along with Harry Venner, got to the semi-finals of the Men's Doubles in January 1960.
