

Table Tennis England Vice-President passes away

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: January 20, 2015

Brian and his wife, Christine Halliday, at the English Contingent 2007 – photo Robert Palgon

It is with much sadness that we announce Brian Halliday passed away today (January 20, 2015) of cancer, at Henley-on-Thames Hospice, aged 80 years.

Brian's involvement with table tennis at a national and county level include the following:

Table Tennis England

- Vice-President in 2000.
- Vice-Chairman (Public Relations), 1995/96 to 2002/03.
- Public Relations Committee Chairman, 1995/96 to 2002/03.
- National Councillor (Berkshire), 1978 to 1996 and 2005/06 to 2009/10.
- National Councillor (Isle of Wight), 2010/11 and 2013/14 to 2014/15.

Berkshire County TTA

- Press Officer, 1978 to 1984.
- General Secretary, 1995/96.

Veterans English Table Tennis Society

- Honorary Life Member, 2003.
- Editor of the VETTS magazine for over a 100 issues.
- Mike Watts Memorial Trophy for services to the VETTS, 2010.

Kingfisher Table Tennis Club (Reading)

- Chairman, 1988/89 – 2008/09.

Please contact Rob Sinclair at rob.sinclair@tabletennisengland.co.uk for more information and funeral arrangements.

Rob Sinclair

January 20, 2015.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/former-table-tennis-england-vice-president-brian-halliday-passes-away/>