Table Tennis England's newest umpire is already in action.

Following the seminar at Blackpool to qualify on January 17, Steve Green from Wirral, Cheshire stayed over to finish his practicals at the Blackpool Junior 2 star and successfully qualified as a County Umpire.

He is pictured in action at Wellingborough umpiring at the Cadet County Weekend on January 24-25, accompanying the Lancashire Cadet Team.

Anyone interested in attending a seminar to qualify as a County Umpire should contact Table Tennis England. The next planned seminar is scheduled for Leeds in March.
