

Talent ID Process

Author: Paul Stimpson

It is important to point out that we will not just be looking at results and ranking positions, but also style of play, potential, attitude, commitment etc. The purpose of the squad is to develop successful junior and senior players who can go on to win on the international scene.

Players will constantly be invited to attend sessions on the recommendation of the talent scouts, who are working with their respective regional coaches. Please see the diagram overleaf for the process.
