The Senior National Championships are just two weeks away – and excitement is sure to build as the draw has now been released.

The competition is at the Redbridge Sports & Leisure Centre in Barkingside from Friday February 27 to Sunday March 1.

Most of the best players in England will be competing, including five of the six Team England stars who filled the Mixed Doubles podium at the Commonwealth Games in Glasgow last summer.

The tournament starts with the Under-21 and Veterans' singles competitions, which will be played to a finish on the Friday.

The group stages for the Men's and Women's Singles begin on the Saturday, with the final stages on the Sunday.

The Men's and Women's Doubles also begin on the Saturday, with finals on the Sunday, while the Mixed Doubles begin on Friday and conclude on Saturday.

Table Tennis England members will receive a free programme upon production of their membership card at the venue.
