Nottingham Trent University will be looking to add to their recent success at the BUCS Individual Championships this weekend.

There are 300 entries for the tournament, which will be held at the Park Campus of Nottingham University on February 21 and 22.

The event comprises men's and women's doubles and singles, plus mixed doubles.

Nottingham Trent provide the top seeds in all five events, with their line-up of Chris Doran, Emma Vickers, Emran Hussain, Evangeline Collier and Alice Loveridge.
