Alex Ramsden won the consolation singles at the French Junior & Cadet Open.

The Northampton youngster was knocked out in the group stages of the Cadet Boys' Singles in Metz but then won five knockout matches to win the consolation singles, beating Stefan Tonghioiu of Romania 3-0 in the final.

Kate Cheer competed in the Cadet Singles and Doubles but it was in the Junior Team event, as part of a combined team with Arina Singeozan of Romania and Yuko Kato of Japan, where she had most successes, finishing third.

In the Junior competition, Tom Jarvis was beaten by the top seed and eventual champion after a fine run to the last 16 of the Junior Boys' Singles.

Jarvis won all three group matches and then two knockout matches – coming from 2-0 down to beat Japan's Yukiya Uda in the last 32 – to set up a clash against Alexandre Cassin of France in the last 16.

Despite taking the first set and later levelling at 2-2, the 15-year-old from Skegness could not extend his run as Cassin sealed victory in front of his home crowd.

Also in action were Helshan Weerasinghe and Luke Savill, who both reached the knockout stages before bowing out.

In the doubles, Jarvis and Weerasinghe reached the last 16 before being eliminated, again at the hands of French opposition.

In the Junior Girls' event, Tin-Tin Ho was beaten in the last 32 of the main draw, while Emily Bolton reached the last 16 of the consolation singles.

They paired up to reach the last 16 of the doubles.

As well as Ramsden and Cheer, the England Cadet contingent included Joe Clark and Denise Payet.
