The GB Para Table Tennis Team is sending a team of Pathway and Development players to the Spanish Open in El Prat de Llobregat this week (June 18-21).

Paisley's Martin Perry, silver medalist in the men's class 6 singles at the Cote d'Azur International last year, is one of three Pathway players competing in Spain and will be joined by fellow Scot Conor McAdam (class 6), Daniel Bullen from St Neots (class 5) and Development athlete Craig Allen from Birmingham (class 9).

The team is completed by two self-funded players – national champion Rajan Waterman from Bristol (class 10) and Nathan Thomas from Cardiff (class 10).
