

England's Euro bid comes to an end in Bratislava

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: July 18, 2015

Tom Jarvis (ETTU picture)

England's European Youth Championships is over, with Tin-Tin Ho and two boys' doubles pairings losing in the last 16.

Tin-Tin was up against European No 10 Daria Chernova of Russia and never recovered from losing the first two sets as she lost 4-2.

In the Cadet Boys' Doubles, Alex Ramsden & Harry Dai took a set off top seeds and world ranked No 1 and No 8 Cristian Pletea & Rares Sipos of Romania before succumbing 3-1.

And in the Junior Boys' Doubles, Helshan Weerasinghe & Tom Jarvis were beaten in three close sets by French pair Nolan Givone & Joe Seyfried.

Reaching the last 16 meets the target set down in the selection policy for the event, matching the feat of all three teams from earlier in the competition.

Results

Junior Boys' Doubles

Round of 16

Nolan Givone & Joe Seyfried (FRA) bt Helshan Weerasinghe & Tom Jarvis 3-0 (12-10, 12-10, 11-7)

Cadet Boys' Doubles

Round of 16

Cristian Pletea & Rares Sipos (ROU) bt Alex Ramsden & Harry Dai 3-1 (11-8, 11-9, 5-11, 11-4)

Junior Girls' Singles

Round of 16

Daria Chernova (RUS) bt Tin-Tin Ho 4-2 (11-5, 11-7, 8-11, 11-7, 3-11, 11-6)

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/englands-euro-bid-comes-to-an-end/>