Entries are now open for the SportsAble Southern Disability Grand Prix on October 24 and 25 at Cippenham.

This Tournament is part of the Disability Grand Prix Event series and is a British Table Tennis Association for People with Disabilities (BTTAD) ranking tournament.

There will be four competitions held during the weekend:

Class Singles, where people play against others with a similar disability; split into male and female categories.

Open Singles, where people play against others with a similar Table Tennis ability; split into male wheelchair, female wheelchair, male standing and female standing categories.

Doubles, split into wheelchair and standing categories.

Junior Singles, for people born on or after January 1, 1998; split into male wheelchair, female wheelchair, male standing and female standing categories.

Players may enter the Doubles OR the Junior Singles competition but not both. Categories may be merged if there are insufficient entries.

The cost is £10 per competition or £25 for three competitions and the closing date is Friday October 9.
