Membership renewals season is gathering pace – and don't forget that this year, Associate Membership is free of charge!

We still require PremierClubs to register all players, including their Associate Members, with us in order to comply with the terms of the PremierClub public liability insurance policy.

The good news is this is now much easier to do. Rather than registering all Associate Members separately, you can enter all their details on one document and send it to Table Tennis England's head office, where our membership team will do the rest.
