Would-be Paralympians can discover what it takes to represent Great Britain at a series of talent recruitment days.

The British Table Tennis Association for People with Disabilities (BTTAD) is hosting the days, the first of which is at EIS in Sheffield on Saturday November 28.

It is a free opportunity for any disabled person to come to Sheffield to meet the Great Britain team and take part in an introductory to table tennis session.

The BTTAD will be looking for anybody who shows potential to be the next Paralympic star and will also signpost all athletes to their nearest club.

The event is from 10am to 2pm at the EIS in Coleridge Road (S9 5DA).
