If you fancy cruising to some of the most beautiful destinations on Earth, we have the perfect membership offer for you!

Table Tennis England have teamed up with Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines to offer a superb 10% discount on all cruises.

Fred. Olsen sails from 10 ports in the UK and Ireland to more than 200 destinations worldwide, and you can choose from all types of trips from mini cruises of two nights all the way up to round-the-world extravaganzas of several months.

Whatever you choose, the 10% discount applies. What is more, the discount is ON TOP of any other Fred. Olsen offers and discounts – and any family and friends travelling on the same booking will also receive the discount, even if they are not members of Table Tennis England.

Finally, booking a cruise with Fred. Olsen also provides a direct benefit to Table Tennis England. Any bookings using our discount code will generate a contribution to Table Tennis England. All contributions received will be split equally between the Ivor Montagu Fund and the Tom Blunn Fund, which respectively help with travel expenses for players and officials who are travelling to tournaments overseas.

Keith Norman (Business Development Manager at Fred. Olsen Cruise Lines) said: “As a table tennis player myself, every league I have played in feels like a community in its own right.

“To be part of helping those communities develop in any capacity can only be a good thing.
