Entries are now open for the South Shields Grand Prix.

The north east event will be the fourth stop on the 2015/16 circuit and is at the Temple Park Centre on December 12 and 13.

Saturday's play will feature Banded events, giving competitive players of all abilities the chance to face off against someone of a similar standard. Sunday sees Men's & Women's Singles – won last year in South Shields by Craig Howieson and Emma Vickers respectively – plus Under-21 Singles, Mixed Veteran and Open Doubles events.
