It's time to book your place at the flagship event of English table tennis!

Tickets for the Senior National Championships are on sale from today – this is YOUR chance to see the best players in the land going head-to-head for the right to call themselves National Champion 2015/16.

Liam Pitchford and Kelly Sibley will be going all out to retain the singles titles they won last year, but there are plenty of other players who will have their eyes on the prizes when the action starts at Hertfordshire Sports Village in Hatfield.

This year promises to be an even bigger occasion as the best para players in the land will be joining the party, with three men's categories and one for women, featuring world and Paralympic medallists.

With under-21 categories and an invitational team test event as well, it's shaping up to be the best Senior Nationals in memory and an event that no table tennis fan in the country will want to miss.

The action is from Friday March 18 to Sunday March 20 but tickets are on sale now, with discounts for Table Tennis England members!

Friday day tickets cost just £5, with Saturday tickets at £10 for adults and £7 for under-16s. On Sunday, when the Men's and Women's Singles champions will be crowned, tickets will cost £12 for adults and £9 for under-16s.

There is also a three-day ticket which costs £25 for adults and £20 for under-16s.

Table Tennis England members can gain a 10% discount off ALL these prices using a code which will be emailed to all members this morning.
