

Book your place at our Coaching Conference

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: February 19, 2016

A presentation on how to scout talented young players, plus the opportunity to quiz Head Coach and Talent Development Manager Nick Jarvis and watch England Youth Squad players in action, are on the agenda of our next Coaching Conference in Plymouth.

The conference is at Eggbuckland Community College, the home of Joola Plymouth TTC and a Talent Development Centre, on Thursday March 31, beginning at 4.30pm.

Plymouth Talent Coach Paul Whiting will present on "How to find the next generation of players and expanding the talent pool."

Coaches will also have the opportunity to learn how the Talent Development Centre makes the initial contact with schools and plans different types of delivery for taster days, curriculum sessions and after school clubs sessions.

After discussions on how this can be implemented within other clubs or areas, and a break, there is the chance to watch England Youth Squad matches, followed by a Q&A session with Nick Jarvis. The conference is set to finish at 8.30pm.

To book your place visit coachingportal.azolve.com/Workbench/public/courses

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/book-your-place-at-our-coaching-conference/>