Hockley TTC are ready for a 24-hour playing marathon in aid of Sport Relief.

The club, which has teams in the Southend & District and Basildon & District leagues, will get under way at 9pm tomorrow (March 18) and play until the same time on Saturday.

The event is open to any TTE registered player and anyone interested in attending should contact paulstrutt21@gmail.com

Players will be asked to make a donation when they arrive and are encouraged to get their own sponsorship.
