

Jersey Grand Prix draw announced

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: March 23, 2016

Table Tennis Jersey is looking forward to welcoming all the players from the UK and beyond to their landmark 10th Anniversary NatWest Open this weekend.

As well as many seasoned internationals, the JTTA is particularly delighted to greet two Rio-bound Paralympic GB players – Will Bayley and Jack Hunter-Spivey.

Top seed in the men's event is Grand Prix serial winner Ryan Jenkins of Wales, who will be challenged by David McBeath and Darius Knight. Emma Vickers leads the women's seedings.

Play starts this Friday with the team events followed by the Grand Prix format. See the attached programme below.

Meanwhile, don't forget you can still enter the upcoming Doncaster and Blackpool Grand Prix events.

Doncaster takes place on April 16 and 17 – click here for information or to enter

Blackpool is on May 7 and 8 – click here for more information or to enter

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/jersey-grand-prix-draw-announced/>