

Top volunteers are honoured

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: March 29, 2016

Volunteers who give their time to help others enjoy table tennis have been honoured at the annual Table Tennis England Volunteer Awards.

The 2016 winners were presented with their trophies during a reception at the PG Mutual National Championships in Hatfield.

The roll of honour was:

Club of the Year

Winner – Bishop Auckland; runner-up – Joola Plymouth

Volunteer of the Year

Winner – Keith Warrington; runner-up – Debbie Whiting

Coach of the Year

Winner – James Lewis; runner-up – Harvey Stevens

Unsung hero

Winner – Bryan Edwards; runner-up – Roger Bowkett

Equality Award

Winner – Tim Holtam

Table Tennis England are currently looking at how we recruit, welcome and retain volunteers within clubs across the country. To find out more click here.

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/top-volunteers-are-honoured/>