Our archivist, Diane Webb, is in need of help identifying players. Can you put a name to a face?

There's a mixed bag of photos again this week.

If you can identify anyone, please let me know on DianeK1414@hotmail.co.uk

From 8th April 2016

I am continually appreciative to everyone who contacts me with information and continually amazed how far reaching the interest in these photographs are. The two group pictures from last week, 8th April, came up with some interesting names. Congratulations to Phil Vickers the only person who identified a young Alan Cooke sitting next to Simon Griew in Photo 1. Also special thanks to Mike Perry the CEO of PG Mutual for all his identifications in this photo.

Colin Clemett identified the year this photo was taken of ETTA Officers and National Councillors. Colin also provided a list of who was on Council at that time and with the help of others most faces have been given names. However, there are still a few gaps so below are listed those who are known, those who are possibilities and then a list of those who are not attributed to any person. A full set of names would be wonderful to achieve.
