

Jarvis and Sibley aim to keep up form in Blackpool

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: May 04, 2016

Tom Jarvis and Kelly Sibley will both be looking to continue winning runs at the Blackpool Grand Prix this weekend.

Jarvis has won the last two events in Nottingham and Doncaster and will be looking to complete a hat-trick. As he also won Bristol earlier in the season, he is closing in on Ryan Jenkins at the top of the standings.

Jenkins is the top seed at the Blackpool Sports Centre, while last year's overall champion Chris Doran is ranked second and Jarvis third.

Sibley, meanwhile, will be looking to make it four in a row after winning in South Shields, Nottingham and Doncaster, giving her a 100% record in the events she has entered this season.

She is top seed, ahead of Charlotte Carey and Karina Le Fevre.

Click here to view the programme, including the draw

Entries for the season finale London Grand Prix in Redbridge on June 4 and 5 are now open – click here to enter

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/jarvis-and-sibley-aim-to-keep-up-form-in-blackpool/>