

Take up the TV Challenge!

Author: Paul Stimpson

Posted On: May 13, 2016

Do you know anyone who has an amazing table tennis-related skill? If so, a production company is inviting them to apply to be on TV.

Challenge Me is a brand new show that is coming to ITV later in the year and is on the hunt for people with extraordinary and unique skills. And if they can do it on TV, they could win a cash prize.

A spokesman for the production company said: "What we are looking for is people who can showcase their amazing skills on TV – such as accurate table tennis skill. If you think of anyone in your leagues who can do something unique and entertaining, we would love for them to apply. Nothing is too strange"

The show will be presented by Stephen Mulhern and it will air on Saturday nights before the X Factor.

See the flyer below for more information or click here to apply.

CASTING CALL

Do you have a unique skill or unusual party trick or know someone who does? Something that no one else can do?

Could you use that skill to take on a huge challenge and win big in the process?

If this is you or someone you know APPLY NOW for CHALLENGE ME (working title) - a brand new ITV gameshow.

We're looking for ordinary people with extraordinary, unusual or downright bizarre skills. You might be able to identify cars just by hearing their engine, your Nan might have an unparalleled knowledge of Corrie or perhaps your son can play piano with his feet. No skill, trick or talent is too weird or wonderful for our show!

No age limit!

If you think you've got a skill or trick you can use to complete one of our amazing challenges in front of the nation and bag a big prize, then we want to hear from you!

APPLY NOW!

Go to:
www.itv.com/beontv
or email ChallengeMe@potatotv.co.uk

Downloaded From:

<https://newsarchive.tabletennisengland.co.uk/news/archived/take-up-the-tv-challenge/>