England's Boys' and Girls' teams have both won bronze medals at the Cadet 6 Nations in France.

The Girls' squad of Denise Payet, Charlotte Bardsley, Gauri Duhan and Mollie Patterson won three and drew one of their matches and were only beaten 6-4 by France, who won every match.

England's 5-5 draw with Sweden meant the two nations finished with seven points, and Sweden edged the silver medals on countback, with 378 points to England's 361.

The Boys' line-up was James Smith, Ethan Walsh, Harry Dai and Shayan Siraj and they won two matches and drew one to also finish third behind France and Germany.

The individual events are being played to a finish on Sunday.
