Nottingham & District TTA stalwart Ron Bolton MBE has died at the age of 93.

A table tennis player since 1939, he was a Life Vice-President of the association, having been Chairman and General Secretary for many years.

He was awarded an MBE for services to sport in the Queen's New Year Honours in 1981.

When he stood down from the association committee in 2011, he gave a fascinating interview about his career in table tennis to Owen Rumbold, which you can read by clicking here
